[2021605, A. G. O.]

15. The following order is published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

WAR DEPARTMENT,

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1913.

By direction of the President the general court-martial which was convened at West Point, New York, pursuant to Special Orders No. 168, Headquarters United States Military Academy, dated August 10, 1911, and which on August 16, 1911, tried Ralph I. Sasse, Ellicott H. Freeland, Tattnall D. Simkins, and James D. Christian, cadets of the United States Military Academy, for having violated, on August 4, 1911, paragraph 132 of the former regulations of said Academy, and sentenced them to be dismissed from the service, is, by virtue of authority contained in an act of Congress approved March 4, 1913, hereby reassembled to meet at West Point, New York, at ten o'clock, a. m., on Monday, April 14, 1913, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the reconsideration of the sentence in the cases of said former cadets. It being impracticable to reassemble the full court, the following members only and the judge advocate will reassemble:

Capt. Thomas W. Darrah, Twenty-ninth Infantry.

✓ Capt. Lewis S. Morey, Twelfth Cavalry.

Capt. Edward H. DeArmond, Fifth Field Artillery.

✓ Capt. Donald C. McDonald, Coast Artillery Corps.

First Lieut. George M. Morrow, jr., Fourth Field Artillery.

First Lieut. Forrest E. Williford, Coast Artillery Corps.

First Lieut. Edwin E. Pritchett, Fourth Field Artillery.

First Lieut. Richard Donovan, Coast Artillery Corps.

First Lieut. John K. Herr, Cavalry.

First Lieut. Thomas W. Hammond, Sixth Infantry.

First Lieut. David McC. McKell, Coast Artillery Corps, judge advocate.

All of the above-named former cadets having duly made the applications required by statute, the court upon reassembling and after hearing any reasons and arguments that may be addressed to it as hereinafter provided for, but without hearing any evidence, will proceed to the reconsideration of the sentence in each of said cases as authorized by statute and required by this order, in accordance with the practice and procedure prescribed for general courts-martial upon reconsideration of a sentence, so far as such practice and procedure may be applicable, except that any of said cadets shall have the right to appear in person before the court in open session, accompanied by counsel, and be permitted properly to present to the court in person or by counsel, either orally or in writing, reasons and arguments for the reconsideration of the sentence of dismissal; and upon such reconsideration the court is authorized to construe said paragraph 132 as not necessarily requiring a sentence of dismissal, but as permitting a lesser punishment as provided in paragraph 145 of the current regulations approved June 15, 1911, and to modify the sentence accordingly. The records of trial of said former cadets, together with their applications for reconsideration of the sentence in their cases, will be transmitted to the president of the general court-martial hereby reassembled, and upon the completion of the proceedings in revision, will be sent, together with the proceedings in revision, direct to the Secretary of War. The court, as thus reassembled, is empowered to proceed with the business before it with any number of members not less than the minimum prescribed by law, and upon adjournment after disposing of all the cases to be reconsidered it will report that fact to the War Department, and upon receipt of orders indicating the completion of their duty hereunder, the members of the court and the judge advocate will return to their proper stations.

LINDLEY M. GARRISON,
Secretary of War.

The employment of a stenographic reporter is authorized.

The journeys required of the members of the court and the judge advocate in complying with the foregoing order are necessary in the military service.

[2015803 A—A. G. O.]

16. By direction of the President, and upon the application of First Sergt. Henry McClure, Company G, Thirteenth Infantry, that soldier, upon the receipt of this order at the post at which he is then serving, will be placed upon the retired list created by the act of Congress approved March 2, 1907. He will repair to his home. The Quartermaster Corps will furnish the necessary transportation and pay the soldier commutation of rations in advance for the necessary number of days' travel, it being impracticable for him to carry rations of any kind. The journey is necessary for the public service.

[2015928, A. G. O.]

17. By direction of the President, and upon the application of Q. M. Sergt. Ernest Bender, Quartermaster Corps, that soldier, upon the receipt of this order at the post at which he is then serving, will be placed upon the retired list created by the act of Congress approved March 2, 1907. He will repair to his home. The Quartermaster Corps will furnish the necessary transportation and pay the soldier commutation of rations in advance for the necessary number of days' travel, it being impracticable for him to carry rations of any kind. The journey is necessary for the public service.

[2015944, A. G. O.]

18. Private First Class George G. Clement, Quartermaster Corps, Fort Warren, Mass., will be discharged from the Army by the commanding officer of that post by purchase, under the provisions of General Orders, No. 39, War Department, 1912.

[2020735, A. G. O.]

19. Capt. Frank T. McNarney, Second Cavalry, is transferred to the Sixth Cavalry. He will be assigned to a troop by his regimental commander and will join that troop.

[1987575, A. G. O.]

20. Private Frederick C. Meixner, Military Academy Detachment of Field Musicians, West Point, N. Y., is transferred to the Fifteenth Cavalry and will be sent to Fort Myer, Va., for assignment to a troop stationed at that post. The expenses of the transfer will be borne by the soldier and transportation will not be furnished him.

[2019697, A. G. O.]

21. Second Lieut. Cyril A. W. Dawson, Coast Artillery Corps, recently appointed from civil life with rank from January 3, 1913, is assigned to the One hundred and forty-eighth Company. He will report in person to the commanding officer, Fort Ward, Wash., for temporary duty at that post for a period not exceeding five days, ending at such time as will enable him to complete the journey to Fort Baker, Cal., not later than April 20, 1913. Lieut. Dawson will be relieved from duty at Fort Ward by the commanding officer of that post in time to comply with this order, and will then proceed to Fort Baker, Cal., and join the company to which he is assigned not later than April 20, 1913. The travel directed is necessary in the military service.

[2021902, A. G. O.]
